

Study 6 2 Thessalonians 3:1-18

1. How did Paul make himself an example of the proper attitude toward work? (V7-9)
2. How can you become a similar example to others?
3. What actions are to be taken against those who refuse to work? (v12-15)
4. Why would this have been a good method of dealing with the problem in Thessalonica?
5. What principles for discipline that could be applied in the church today do you find in this chapter.
